New York, Nov. 6.

The Herald's cable special correspondent from the Pontifical State to the evening of Nov. 5, gives the following: "Gen. Garibaldi had concentrated his forces around his former position at Monte-Rosendo. Yesterday afternoon, the Spanish, Cripei, and Secordi, supporters of his cause, and a formal deputation from the Papal Government, came to him to withdraw as the Italian troops had crossed the frontier. Garibaldi had sent, saying he did not value his life in such a cause, and that a soldier ought not to count the number of his enemies. Eugenio Corriveau, representative of the General, had been received by the Papal Government, and was told that the Papal forces would all be used by the French Government.

Gen. Gioberti is in command of the Italian forces, as an army of 12,000 men, the Papal frontier. He has placed a headquarters at Pisa.
